Thought of the Week: What about the mercy we offer to others? We are called to be merciful, as God is merciful to us. We are given daily opportunities to be merciful and forgiving to others: the driver who has cut you off or who is tailgating you, your spouse who has spoken sharply to you, the customer service representative who dismisses your question or ignores you. We can never know what another person is going through or why they are acting in a certain way.
